"This course has taught me more about domaining in 2 weeks than I had learnt in the previous 2 years. I am blown away by how much money this free course has saved me, and now I have a real chance of profiting from domaining. I am delighted to recommend this course to anyone interested in making money from domain names."

TESTIMONIALS

"Adam has taught the how to get back to basics but also think outside the box at the same time. Buying domains and flipping for profit requires a basic strategy which Adam outlines in the course, but he also gives tips and tools to get his students thinking creatively. Great."

DNF College has given me a new enthusiasm for domain names and an easy to follow strategy for increasing my income. Forget whatever you thought you knew about domain names and relearn with DNF College. jll

Adam Dicker has helped greatly and recently given me some excellent advice. Adam's free no strings attached consulting from a major industry player is very rare since many hobby filifiers do not do a lot of sharing of their knowledge. The main exception I can think of is Rich Schwartz who David G

After four years of selling domains on the aftermarket I'm doing okay but I know that I've still got some holes in my game. At DNFCollege Adam Dicker is dropping science that I believe will help take me to the next level. I've already picked up some tips that BlowerJ

I have talked with and followed many domain experts over the last several years. Adam is a person that will respond and has timely common sense scenarios that are often overlooked by many of the other experts, or so-called experts. It's easy to make money with domains like candy.com.

DNFCollege.com is currently the buzz in the domain industry. DNFCollege.com is a free domain course for domainers to take part in covering everything to do with the domain industry. Adam Dicker, a leading domain expert who has built extensive knowledge of the industry over the last 10 years put together a course covering over popular topics such as how to properly buy domains, sell domains, appraise domains, manage your domain portfolio, negotiating domain sales for maximum return on your property, the best domain tools to use and how to use them, the local domain market and much more.
