

A thankful Thanksgiving

Monday, 28 November 2011

Well, with Thanksgiving a very recent memory it's nice to take time out of busy schedules and reflect on all the things that we can be thankful for. It's not something that we celebrate here in Australia, however, we are certainly into being thankful in a big way.

Currently our founder and CEO Michael Gilmour, is vacationing with his family throughout part of the USA. In fact, they managed to get there in time to have Thanksgiving dinner at one of ParkLogic's very good friends houses which was just wonderful. The turkey pictured here was theirs for dinner and it weighed in at a whopping 11 kilograms /24 pounds! Apparently it tasted just as good as it looks but was no where near as good as the fun company that they shared it with.

Remembering to stop and be thankful is tremendously important. We are very thankful here at ParkLogic for many things including our whole community. For people who believe in what we do and people who we believe in too.

We are thankful too, for a business that is going from strength to strength in an every changing industry that always keeps you so motivated for being out there on the forefront of vision.

A thankful Thanksgiving

Monday, 28 November 2011

So from all of us here at ParkLogic – we hope that you had a wonderful, restful and safe Thanksgiving.